

Pedagogical Section in Australia

Researching the Development of the Moral and Ethical forces in the Child and Young Person through Steiner Pedagogy and Curriculum

A gathering July 16th-17th, 2024

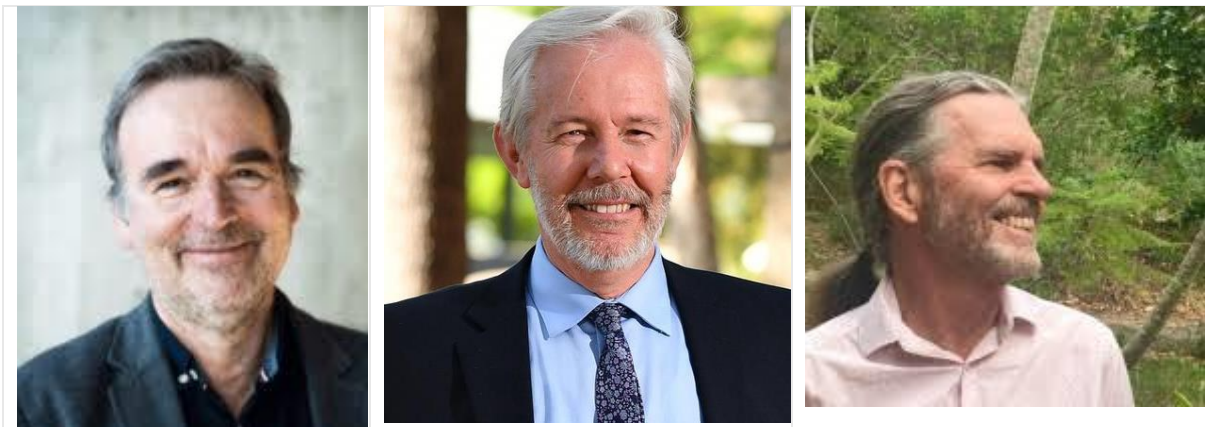

Castlecrag Campus of Glenaeon School, Sydney

Philippe Ruebke – Co-Leader of the Pedagogical Section at the Goetheanum

Andrew Hill- CEO Steiner Education Australia

Tim Dunn- High School Science Teacher and Steiner high school advisor

Peggy Day- Pedagogical Section Coordinator, Australia

Lunch and Morning and Afternoon Tea provided - $150

Trybooking link – <https://www.trybooking.com/CSRVY>

Contact pedagogicalsectionaus@gmail.com

Tuesday 16th July

8.30am Speech and incarnation of the Ego- tba

9.15am Philippe Ruebke – The developing moral life of the child within Steiner Waldorf Pedagogy and Curriculum

10.00 Andrew Hill – the class teacher student and their growing connection to the moral in the world

10.45 Morning Tea

11.15 Discussion Groups and then sharing back in the main hall

12.30- Lunch

1.30 Stage Specific Workshops

Early Childhood- Peggy Day

Class Teacher – Andrew Hill

High School- Tim Dunn

3.00pm Afternoon Tea

3.30pm – Peggy Day- Deeper background pictures of moral forces

4.15pm Whole group discussion

5pm – Close

Wednesday 17th July

8.30 Speech and the incarnation of the ego

9.30 am Tim Dunn – the high school student and their path toward discernment – followed by group discussion.

10.30 Morning Tea

11.00 Stage Specific Workshops/Discussions

12.15 Future Research Questions and On-line Gatherings

1 pm Close